is breaking the stereotypes about the working inability of disabled people (VDC users), and proactively responds to discriminatory (non)financing system.

In this innovation, users were trained for massage, leading group exercises and more. Program offers services to elders and other users within and outside VDC. They increase their sense of self-esteem and active involvement in society.

The innovation idea also responds to the needs of an aging society. Every person can be active in helping a person on the areas he can.

Sometimes a smile is all we need.
